GOLDEN JUBILEE
IS ATTENDED
BY HUNDREDS

Officials of State, Headed By
Gov. Nestos, Among First To Greet Sister Boniface

ALL CREEDS REPRESENTED

Many People From Outside Bismarck Included In The Reception Line

Through halls and rooms gorgeous with beautiful yellow and white flowers hundreds of men, women and children of Bismarck and other cities passed this afternoon to render homage to the fifty years of devoted service of Sister M. Boniface, superintendent of St. Alexius hospital.

It was the Golden Jubilee of Sister Boniface, a celebration by her friends of the fiftieth anniversary of her entrance into the order of the Benedictine sisters. For Bismarck citizens, too, it was the celebration of the service of a pioneer of the city, for Sister Boniface was one of the early residents of Bismarck, and has taken an able part in the building of the city and community.

Many in Line

Men and women of all creeds and walks in life were in the reception line. When the reception opened at 2:30 o'clock there were a great number of people ready to greet Sister Boniface and to receive a cheery greeting in return. The reception continued during the afternoon until five o'clock. Among the first to greet Sister Boniface were the officials at the state capitol, headed by Governor Nestos, and the employees of the capitol. The pioneers, the organization of Bismarck men and women of long residence in the city, called in a body, as did the members of a score of civic and other organizations.

With Sister Boniface in the receiving line in the parlor of the hospital were Sisters Anatolia and Theodora, long friends and many others.

The hall at the entrance was flanked on either side with a large floor vase of roses and snap dragons. A little further on in the hall were two great floor vases of daffodils. The color scheme was in gold and white throughout. Beyond was an arch of white cedar from which was suspended three golden tinted baskets containing roses and freesias, and on either side of

PROBE REPORT OF STOCK DYINGGovernor Nestos Assured Investigation is Under Way

Governor R. A. Nestos today was assured that a personal investigation of reports of dire need in a limited area in southwestern North Dakota would be made by the Northern Pacific district superintendent with a view of reporting to the railroad's main offices on the governor's request for reduction of railroad freight rates on shipment of feed for stock and for various supplies for use by individuals and on farms. This request has been made of the railroad by the governor.

A report from the New Leipzig Commercial Club, by F. P. Ewald, to the governor said: "Conditions deplorable. Stock dying in great numbers. Relief must be had at once. We ask your assistance in procuring reduced freight rates and financial aid.
Agricultural industry in jeopardy if help is not forthcoming."

Other information to the governor is to the effect that the area most in need is limited to territory south and west from Grant county, including about three counties which have been hard hit by repeated crop failures.

JEWELRY LOOT
IS $100,000

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—Jewelry estimated by the hotel management to be worth $100,000 was obtained by bandits, who early today looted safely deposit boxes at the Washington hotel.

RICHARDS QUILTS
DICKINSON BODY

Dickinson, N. D., Feb. 12.—W. L.
Richards this week tendered his resignation as president of the city commission in a signed communication to the commissioners and the people of the city. He asks that his resignation take effect March 1.

The resignation of Mr. Richards will probably be acted upon at the regular meeting of the city commission next Monday afternoon. It is also probable that the commission will at the same time call a special election to choose a successor to Mr.
Richards. Inasmuch as there will be no regular city election this spring it is believed that the special election will be held early in April.

Mr. Richards has been president of the commission since that form of government was established in Dickinson in July, 1919.

DENBY URGES NAVY PERSONNEL CUT,
PUTTING 100 DESTROYERS ON 'SHELF'
TO SAVE U. S. 70 MILLION A YEAR

Washington, Feb. 12.—Secretary Denby appeared today before the house naval committee to recommend that the navy personnel for the next fiscal year be fixed at 90,000 men, and 6,000 apprentices as compared with 100,000 men and 6,000 apprentices now authorized.

Mr. Denby recommended that there be no reduction in the existing strength of line officers of the navy, that the first class at Annapolis be graduated and commissioned but that appointments to the academy hereafter be reduced to three for each member of Congress instead of five.

The naval secretary recommended that 100 destroyers be placed out of commission.
He estimated that the program he outlined would effect a saving of $70,000,000 in next year's budget.

Secretary Denby's statement pointed out that since 1919 the war-time naval establishment has been reduced from 1,363 vessels in commission to 900, the commissioned personnel from 32,738 to 6,168 and the enlisted force from 480,723 to 100,999.

The Bismarck district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church open-o'clock at the McCabe Episcopal church. Many prominent churchmen, including Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, of the Helena area, are in attendance at the conference.

The evening session, to which as at all other sessions the general public is cordially invited, will be of unusual interest. The district superintendent will preside. The program will consist of an illustrated address,
"Our Church Work," by Rev. H. Styles Harris, and an evangelistic address by Walter Vater.

The conference will continue Tuesday morning, afternoon and evening and Wednesday morning, afternoon and evening. Delegates from many towns are in attendance.

the district, talked upon the work in program were F. W. Gross, C. L. Wallace, Mrs. S. F. Halyard and R. S.

Johnson. A round-table discussion also was to be held late in the afternoon.

Of especial interest will be the report on the Centenary movement in the Helena area and generally.

The call to the conference said in part: "Midway in the five-year Centenary period, the Methodist Episcopal church stands at a crossroads on the Highway of God."

"The world is suffering a natural reaction from an unaccustomed idealism."

"Personal service and sacrifice and national and international cooperation have now largely passed away and a spirit of antagonism between classes, nations, races, and even religions, has spread over the world."

"Let the Methodist Episcopal church, through its accredited and trusted officials and representative pastors and laymen, assemble in such an hour for prayer, praise, fellowship and meditation."

RETAIL FOOD
PRICES SLUMP

Washington, Feb. 12.—Further decreases in retail prices for food are shown in statistics issued by the department of labor for 27 of the country's large cities for the month ending January 15. The decrease in that period included Minneapolis and Milwaukee, 6 per cent, Chicago, 5 per cent.

For the year ending January 15 there was a decrease of 19 per cent in Minneapolis, 18 per cent in Milwaukee and 15 per cent in Chicago.

BOND ISSUE TO FINANCE BONUS
NOW PROPOSED

Chairman McCumber and Senator Smoot Submit Proposition to The President

Washington, Feb. 12.—Conferees between Republicans of the house ways and means committee and the senate finance committee on the so-called bonus bill were suspended pending decision from President Harding on a proposal to finance the cash feature of the bonus by means of bonds instead of taxes.

The bond proposal was advanced by Chairman McCumber and Senator Smoot, senate conferees, who took the position that it would be unwise to increase taxes at this time. The president, it was understood, expected to discuss the plan with Secretary Mellon.

Under the senator's plan short-time bonds amounting to about $350,000-000 a year would be issued over the three-year period during which the cash payments would be made to the former service men. The sub-committee of the majority members of the house ways and means committee had proposed that the money be raised by levying new taxes and increasing some of those existing.

LINCOLN DAY
IS OBSERVED

Governor Speaks To Children
At Wachter School

Governor R. A. Nestos spoke to a big audience of wide-eyed children this morning at the Wachter School as a part of the Lincoln Day exercises of the schools. The governor spoke to the children of the lesson taught by the character and accomplishments of Abraham Lincoln, and how they could apply the story of the railsplitter boy who became president to their own lives. The program also included the singing of patriotic songs.
Edward B. Cox spoke to high school students today and Miss Hazel Nielson addressed the Junior High school at the William Moore school on the subject of Abraham Lincoln.

School was held in all buildings this morning long enough for the Lincoln Day programs. Reference to Lincoln was made by several pastors in the local churches yesterday.

JOE CANNON
TO QUIT OFFICE

Washington, Feb. 12.—Uncle Joe Cannon, oldest member of the house, announced today he would not be a candidate for re-election as representative from the 18th Illinois district.

Wilton, passed away last week, aged 78. Some years ago Mr. Larson was stricken with paralysis and has been practically helpless since that time.
A few months ago he lost his eyesight and had been gradually failing in health.

He is survived by his widow and the following children: Albertina,

JUDGE MILLER'S FILM ACTRESS
FIRST OFFICIAL
ACTS PERFORMED
GIVES PRAISE
TO SLAIN MAN

Orders Release of Prisoner From Fargo Jail So That He May Visit His Dying Father

COURT NOW OPEN HERE

Joseph Dietrich of Bismarck Is Named Bailiff—First Term
To Be Held at Devils Lake

Federal court is now open in Bismarck. Chambers in the federal building were in order today for Judge Andrew Miller, who has assumed the office. Many court matters will be disposed of here this week.

The first official act of Judge Miller was to order the release of a man in jail in Fargo so that he might go to LaMoure county where his father was dying. The prisoner, Boettcher, had been in jail for a considerable period for violation of the Volstead act and when word was received that his father was dying a plea was made to Judge Miller to permit him to go to his home.

The second official act was to order the removal of John Smith, colored, who was arrested in Devils Lake, to Sioux Falls, Ia., to face a charge of violating the Harrison anti-narcotic act. Judge S. L. Nuchols, assistant United States district attorney, came to Bismarck to get the order of removal.

United States Marshal S. J. Doyle and Clerk of Court Montgomery were in Bismarck over the week-end con-fering with Judge Miller and left for Fargo this morning. Miss Beatrice McMichael, of Fargo, who is to be private secretary to Judge Miller and court stenographer, has taken up her duties here. Joseph Dietrich, one of Bismarck's pioneers was today appointed bailiff of court by Judge Miller.

First Term Soon.
The first term of court to be held by Judge Miller will be at Devils Lake, beginning Tuesday February 21.
It will not be a jury term.

Judge Miller in the next few days will arrange his calendar so as to begin disposition as quickly as possible of the great mass of business accumulated during the time when Judge Amidon has been unable to hold court.

It is understood that the office of federal prohibition director for North Dakota may be moved to Bismarck because of the court chambers being here. There are several persons employed in this office and a number of deputies operating out of it.

Firm Is Dissolved.

It was announced today that the firm of Miller, Zuger and Tillotson, of which Judge Miller was a member, has been dissolved, and in the future the firm will be known as Zuger and Tillotson, with Alfred Zuger and B. F.
Tillotson as members.

UNEMPLOYMENT
IN N. D. LESSENS

North Dakota Better Off Than
Many States in Union

Fargo, N. D., Feb. 12.—Employment conditions in North Dakota are slowly beginning to improve after what probably has been the worst period of unemployment since before the war, according to Mrs. M. B. Bowe, in charge of the United States Employment bureau here.

Orders for farm help are beginning to come in with a little greater frequency, she says, as the farmers are preparing for their spring work.
Farmers asking for help offer from $10 to $20 per month.

The city employment situation remains the same, however—the least work to be had of any year since the office was opened four years ago.

North Dakota is better off, however, than most of the other states, Mrs. Bowe declares. There are few industrial communities in this state, and it is around these where the unemployment situation has been the worst. Mrs. Bowe refused to make an estimate of unemployed in the state, saying that such estimate would be the merest guess.

Most experienced farm workers can secure work on the farm, she declared, but it is almost impossible to secure work of any kind for men who will not go on the farm or who have not had experience along this line, even though they are willing to work in the country.

"Most farmers haven't much money with which to hire help. They are keeping their biggest boys home from school to help with the work, where-ever that is necessary," Mrs. Bowe said.

CONSIDER CAR PURCHASE.

The state board of administration is considering the purchase of a gasoline street car for use on the capitol line. The present electrically propelled car is out of commission.
The board also is considering the purchase of a new, light electric car or a motor truck to provide means of conveyance for capitol employees.

Earnings are more than 20 centuries old.

Mary Miles Minter Asserts That

Taylor Was Soul of Honor and a Good Friend

TELLS ALL SHE KNOWS

In Statement Through Attorneys
She Says She Has Given All Information Possible

Los Angeles, Feb. 12.—Mary Miles Minter, motion picture actress, issued a statement here today through her attorneys declaring that she had told investigators all that she knew of the life of William Desmond Taylor, motion picture director, slain mysteriously twelve days ago.

"There is no personal or financial sacrifice that I would not gladly make to bring the slayer of William Desmond Taylor to justice."

"Mr. Taylor was one of my best friends. His death was a great shock to me. I met Mr. Taylor first in 1919 when he became my director. I was then 17 years of age and his inspiration, his unfailing courtesy and consideration not only to me but all with whom he came in contact immediately won my highest admiration."

"From 1919 until the day of his death Mr. Taylor was to me the symbol of honor and manliness, an inspiration, friend, guide and counsellor—the symbol of all a girl admires in a man."

"His friendship was uplifting and his advice and aid were invaluable. It would be nothing less than veritable ingratitude if I did not, now that he is dead, raise my voice to proclaim what he was and to repudiate those who would besmirch his character."

"I have told the authorities all that I know both of his life here and his life in the east. That, I fear, has been of little aid to them."

"I cannot conceive the character of a person who would voluntarily wrong
Mr. Taylor or cause his death."

GIVE TIME ON INCOME REPORTS

Extension Granted For Filing Corporation and Partnership Returns

Due to the fact that blanks are not ready, extension of time for filing corporation and partnership returns under the federal income tax law has been granted until May 15. It was stated at the local office of the internal revenue bureau today. The Bismarck office will have the blanks not later than March 1.

It was stated, however, that this extension of time does not relieve individuals receiving revenue from partnerships and corporations from filing their individual return not later than March 15.

A special agent from the St. Paul office will be here March 12 inclusive to give special instruction on the making of corporation returns. Local deputies are not permitted to make out these reports for taxpayers.

Cards will be placed on the door of the local office in the federal building announcing dates on which the deputies will be in the office.

LAHR NOTES
OPTIMISM IN
AUTO CIRCLES

Anticipates Good Business For 1922—Many Orders on File, He Says

The Automobile Shows this year were well attended, in fact, broke all previous records as to sales and attendance, and as usual, the crowds gathered around booths occupied by one-half dozen standard cars, according to Mr. Laehr of the Laehr Motor Sales Company, who has returned from a business trip east.

Price reduction announcements started just prior to the New York Show and came to an end about the middle of the Chicago Show week with the announcement of the reduction of the Four Cylinder Nash Touring to $985.00, an exceptionally low price for this car. Men high up in the industry have expressed the opinion that price reductions are over with and that any change in price during the next few months is liable to be an increase.

Mr. Laehr attended an Overland meeting at Chicago and a Nash meeting at Minneapolis. "After having hobnobbed for ten days with factory men and distributors from various parts of the country and representing various makes of automobiles," said Mr. Laehr, "I have come home full of optimism—not that I went away at all pessimistic. In the first place, knowing that the process of elimination is now taking place as concerns automobile manufacturers,
I am certainly glad that the Laehr Motor Sales company represents cars that will survive. The Willlys-Overland Company's resources are such that they are easily able to weather this elimination process; and Nash is considered by everybody in the business to be a rock in the financial strength. When you know that out of the hundreds of automobile manufacturers only six companies built 84 per cent of the cars sold in 1921, Nash and Overland being two of the six, you can readily see that a great many of the manufacturers in the other 16 per cent must go. So I say, we are glad we are behind cars that will be here when the storm is over."

"Another phase of the industry that is especially pleasing to me in the business is, that apparently prices are now at rock bottom, and undoubtedly the public realizing this will begin buying cars built by the leading and financially strong companies."

"The attitude of bankers in Eastern cities, was another condition I found that could not help but make for optimism. A big Minneapolis banker remarked to me that at this time he considered North Dakota a safe state for investments than Minnesota or South Dakota, for the reason that North Dakota has no defect in its go through, while in Minnesota and South Dakota it is hard to know real values."

"We anticipate a good business during 1922; in fact we have more orders on file now than we have had at this time of the year since 1917."

Several carloads of the various models of Willys-Knight, Nash and Overland cars are enroute to the Laehr Motor Sales company at this time.

Monuments to military heroes are unknown in China.

WARNS AMERICANS.
London, Feb. 12.—(By the Assoof the Irish provisional government, has sent a cablegram warning the American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic not to assist or countenance a coup d'etat which he declares was being planned against the Irish provisional government, says a Dublin dispatch today to the London Press Association.

Dublin, Feb. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The evacuation of the British troops and other military forces from Dublin was unexpectedly suspended today.
The sailing of the steamer due to leave Holyhead with contingents on board was cancelled.

London, Feb. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—The situation in Ireland which had seemed to be improving under the apparent efforts of Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins to obtain the release of kidnapped Ulstermen has become acutely dangerous as the result of an affray at Clones on Saturday.

The Times' Dublin correspondent says, dismay followed the news of the clash in which four special Ulster constables were killed, eight wounded and six made prisoners and the leader of the Sinn Feiners, Matthew Fitzpatrick shot dead. The provisional government was perturbed as the affairs dashed the high hopes based upon its amnesty proclamation and the British decision to release all prisoners held for offenses committed in England from Irish political motives prior to the truce in Ireland.
Developments are awaited with utmost anxiety.

The Ulstermen were on a train which ran for a short distance through free state territory.

CURFEW ENFORCED.

Belfast, Feb. 12.—(1:30 P. M. by the Associated Press.)—Beginning tonight the curfew extending from 9 o'clock in the evening until 5 o'clock in the morning will be reimposed.
This was decided on today in a conference between the Lord Mayor, the military commander and the commissioner as a result of renewed disorders yesterday which continued sporadically today.

Up to this afternoon a total of eight persons had been killed since Saturday.

A gang entered the saloon of Patrick Lamb here today and attempted to hold him up. Lamb resisted and was shot and killed. A bartender in another saloon was shot and badly wounded.

of the Cork strikers yesterday to accept the terms of the rail settlement agreement it was announced today the men on the Band, MacGroom and Blackrock lines also had agreed to accept the terms.

FEELING VERY TENSE.

Belfast, Feb. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Owen O'Duffy, chief of staff of the Irish Republican army, who went to Clones yesterday to investigate Saturday night's disorders there said in an interview today he found feeling very tense throughout Monaghan county because of the unlawful arrest and detention of the entire divisional staff of the Republican army at Drogheda, County Tyrone.
"This probably has reference to a number of Gaelic football players wearing Irish Republican uniforms who were arrested January 15 while on their way from Monaghan to Londonderry. They were declared by the Royal Irish constabulary to have been armed."

"In this area," said Chief O'Duffy,
"I succeeded in allaying the feeling somewhat. If the army officials are not released I cannot promise or guarantee peace in this part of the country."

INTERNATIONAL MEETS FORD ON TRACTOR PRICES

Harvester Company Cut Follows Reductions Made By Detroit Man

(Chicago Journal of Commerce)
Henry Ford may find himself too busy tending to his own business in the next few months that he will have little time to reorganize the currency system of the country, demonetize gold or flay the money barons of Wall Street.
The new prices quoted on tractors and the temper of Harvester officials would seem to indicate that the prayers of the country that someone give Mr. Ford some real competition are about to be answered.
A week ago Mr. Ford announced a reduction of $23 in the price of Fordson tractors, cutting the price from $625 to $595. Last night the International Harvester Company sent out the following statement and officials refused to add a word or to change a syllable of the official announcement. The announcement said:

Announce Big Cut
"The International Harvester Company today announced price reductions of $230 on two-furrow tractors and $249 on three-furrow tractors, effective immediately.
"Until May 1 next, the company will present to every farmer purchasing one of these tractors a two-furrow or three-furrow plow or a tractor disk harrow.
"President Harold F. McCormick said: 'This reduction is not justified by any present or prospective reduction of manufacturing costs. It is made chiefly to meet competition and enable our dealers to retain their position in the tractor trade. The burden of this reduction and the cost of the plows or harrows presented to purchasers will be borne entirely by the company.'
Meet Ford's Endeavor
Read it again and then consider the attendant circumstances. Not so long ago Edsel Ford gave an interview that the company lost $100 apiece on every tractor manufactured in 1921. Officials of the International Harvester Company know enough about manufacturing costs to know that he spoke the truth. When that tractor, which cost $109 more than the sale price to produce in 1921 was cut from $625 to $595 International Harvester executives knew that Mr. Ford intended to throw his personal fortune into the game of selling tractors at a huge loss to corral what business is to be had and to dominate the field when the farmer begins to buy again.

Mr. Ford has said much about building and selling a million tractors a year. Thus far he has had little luck in the direction of this ambition. Last year he built 36,000 tractors and lost $2,000,000 thereby. He appears still to hope that he may achieve the million figure at which time he would not be operating at a loss.
Have these things in mind when you read what Mr. McCormick has to say about the price being entirely competitive, about protecting his dealers and about the company losing money at the game. Incidentally, have them in mind when considering the fact that the International Harvester Company will give away plows worth $125 to $175 with each tractor bought.
Ford Ahead of Game
Mr. Ford is in a fortunate circumstance to begin this price war. While other tractor companies have their yards full of tractors and other farm machinery they cannot sell, the Detroit wizard has unloaded practically all of his tractors on protesting dealers. These dealers do not get the benefit of the recent cut. They find themselves with half a dozen to fifty tractors which they were induced by various devices to purchase at the old price. They lost the $230. Mr. Ford doesn't.
Thus the wily Mr. Ford will obtain millions of words of free advertising and suffer little. The Ford dealer gets 17 1/2 per cent commission for selling a tractor. By the time he deducts the $230 which Mr. Ford has chipped off the price of the machine at retail this commission wanders across the ledger page into the red ink area.

Like the flivver the Fordson comes stripped. None of the competitors of the machine charge that it is not well built, of honest materials. They do say that, like the flivver, the first cost should be added to the equipment and extras necessary to put it into the field adequately equipped if prices are to be compared. And they will be compared in every corner grocery store in the country from today until the price war is over.

GETTING BACK TO NORMALCY VIA AUTOMOBILE

One Person In Every 10 In The United States Owns a Motor Vehicle

Cleveland, O., Feb. 11.—Economic students here declare the automobile industry is leading the country back to normalcy. They cite as evidence, advance 1921 registration statistics.

One person out of every ten in the United States owns a motor vehicle—for a grand total of 10,502,000 passenger cars and trucks. This represents the registration of the various states as of December 31st, 1921, and is an increase of 1,206,748 cars and trucks over 1920 when 9,295,253 cars and trucks were recorded, according to information sent in to a prominent motor car company here.
In some states the gain was as much as 35 per cent and ten states reported an increase of more than 20 per cent. The national gain was 15 per cent. In the race between Ohio and New York state for first position the latter won again with 755,000 as against Ohio's 743,000. Next in order came Pennsylvania, California, Illinois, Michigan, Texas, Iowa and Indiana. Combined the first nine states own over half the cars of the country, according to these statistics.

CHEVROLET OUT FOR SALE MARK AT AUTO SHOW

Stimson Cites New York and Chicago Sales Totals as Goal

Effort to maintain the sales record of the Chevrolet Motor Car company, which led the field at both the Chicago and New York Auto Shows, is being made at the Minneapolis Auto Show, according to B. E. Stimson, Minneapolis branch manager of the Chevrolet.

"It was believed at first that the record of 148 cars sold on the floor of the New York Automobile Show would be the record of show sales this year, not only for all makes of cars, but also for Chevrolet cars," states Mr. Stimson.
"But the Chevrolet Motor Car company shortly afterwards smashed this New York show record by a considerable margin, by the sale of 181 cars at Chicago. All manufacturers at the show were greatly interested in Chevrolet sales, because this car being the world's lowest priced standard equipped automobile, is the first to show the recovery that has been so eagerly awaited by the entire industry.
This large volume of sales of the Chevrolet Motor Car company is taken by automobile men as a positive indication that a banner year is ahead of the industry, particularly for the low priced cars.

ONLY AMBITION TO MAKE GOOD JUDGE-MILLER

New Federal Judge For North Dakota Speaks at Banquet in His Honor Given Here

MANY LAWYERS SPEAK
Representatives of Bar of Other Cities Felicitate the New Judge

"I have no other ambition than to make a just and humane judge, and to render just service," said Andrew Miller, federal judge for North Dakota, to 200 men and women from Bismarck and other parts of the state, at a banquet given in his honor at the McKenzie hotel Saturday night.

Judge Miller, called upon for remarks by Major J. M. Hanley, of Mandan, toastmaster, after felicitations had been extended by many speakers, responded briefly. Judge Miller expressed the appreciation of Mrs. Miller and himself for the evidence of good will and fellowship.

The President and the Senate had placed in him great power and authority, Judge Miller said, as a part of the administration of the government, and it had been found necessary to lodge that great power and responsibility in a federal judge.

"If any man used that power for his own aggrandizement, or to punish an enemy or to reward a friend, he would have forgotten the purpose of that great power," said Judge Miller. Stating that he believed he appreciated as far as one may the power and responsibility, he concluded by saying that "I have no other ambition than to make a just and humane judge and render just service impartially to all."

The banquet was preceded by a reception held in Patterson hall at which Judge and Mrs. Miller were greeted.

Judge Bronson Speaks.
Toastmaster Hanley read at the banquet letters from Mrs. William Langer, Judge Dick and Col. Hildreth, Henry Halverson, member of the Miller reception committee, led the singing of some favorite songs.

Judge H. E. Bronson was introduced as the first speaker, his subject being "Basis of Justice." He referred to the judgeship contest and said that no strife is so bitter as that among former friends or families, and added that when the smoke of battle has cleared away good citizenship demands good fellowship and concord. The President and Senate, he said, has signally honored Judge Miller and Bismarck, and added that "The President and Senate have known him, he had been judged and found not wanting."

Judge J. A. Coffey, speaking for the district bench, said that he took the opportunity not only of saluting Judge Miller personally but as a representative of the district judiciary. There is no high position more desired by members of the legal profession than that of a place upon the federal bench, he said. He spoke of his long friendship with Judge Miller and said that "I believe it fortunate for the people of the state to have a man on the federal bench in whose disposition there is no rancor and who has a forgivable nature."

George Turpe, of Jamestown, declared that Judge Miller would go on the bench with a character not only proven in his own conscience and in the minds of his friends, but with a character that had stood up in a fight.

Capt. I. P. Baker spoke of the days in Dakota territory when there was little law except that of the vigilantes. It was the desire of the people, he said, that determined what the law should be, and it was the duty of every citizen to support the court, and to remember that our courts are no better than we Judge Miller, he said, could afford to forget all past unkindness in the administration of his duties.

A. T. Faber, of Mandan, who was introduced by the toastmaster as having been chosen to represent the Mandan bar, which had almost unanimously endorsed Judge Miller, said that he knew that Judge Miller would administer the laws conscientiously on the bench and that the people will be proud of him.

Visit to Attorney-General
Judge H. L. Berry, of the district court, felicitated Judge Miller and the citizens of the twin cities of the Slope. The fact that Judge Miller would have his chambers here meant that he would "stay with us and we'll stay with him," Judge Berry said.

Sam H. Clark welcomed Judge Miller home as a representative citizen and friend and referred with sarcasm to the attacks made upon Judge Miller.

Judge Hanley who was counsel for Mr. Miller in Washington, said that after the hearings had concluded in Washington he went with Mr. Miller to see the Attorney-General of the United States.

"The Attorney-General turned to Mr. Miller and said 'I've investigated your life from boyhood and I find nothing in your life that you need be ashamed of,'" Judge Hanley declared amid cheers.

WILL PUBLISH THE DIARY OF COUNT TOLSTOI

Three Unpublished Works To Be Included In The Memorial Edition

Moscow, Feb. 13.—Three unpublished works of Count Leo Tolstoi are to be included in the Memorial edition of his works which his daughters are planning to issue.

The most important of these is his diary, which will run to eight volumes of 500 pages each. The diary was begun in 1850 and continued to 1870, without a break, then abandoned until 1889, when the great writer renewed it and kept it until two days before his death in 1910.

The first 20-year period of the diary describes his life as a soldier in the Caucasus, during the siege of Sebastopol and his marriage. The second period of the diary is less personal and devoted to questions of religion, philosophy and politics.

A second of the unpublished works is an unfinished romance called "The Story of Peter the Great," and deals with revolutionary plots of that time.

The third work is a comedy in five acts, "The Nihilists," written in 1860, poking fun at short-haired women, long-bearded idealists and other Russian types. It was refused by the Art theater of those days, a fact which made the author disheartened.

Other than these three works, there are a large number of unpublished or incomplete short stories to be issued. As Tolstoi made his daughters promise not to copyright any of his works, after his life rule, these new works will be published simultaneously throughout the world.

DECISION GOES TO ATTORNEYS FOR SCRUTINY

Commencement of Purchase of Hail Warrants Awaits Action of Bond Attorneys

Purchase of North Dakota's 1921 hail warrants will begin as soon as the two firms in Minneapolis, who are jointly financing the proposition, have received the approval upon the decision of the North Dakota Supreme Court in the recent injunction case from a firm of Chicago attorneys to whom they submit questions of legal points upon financial matters. A certified copy of the opinion left Bismarck on the first train after the decision was handed down and decision of the attorneys upon the points submitted to them is expected in the course of a day or two.

The companies have made all arrangements to make immediate purchase, as soon as they receive legal assurance that the decision protects the buyers of the securities. Moneys already are in Bismarck to begin the purchase and additional credit will be furnished as desired. The warrants probably will be purchased through the First National Bank.

Complete power was given the Industrial Commission to make good its contract when the supreme court denied the injunction requested by Otto Bauer, who instituted a friendly suit for the financial organizations to settle certain questions which had not before been presented to the court. The decision covered the entire field of the contract and the powers of the Industrial Commission in dealing with the questions raised concerning the operation of the hail warrant laws.

In setting forth the provisions of the contract between the Industrial Commission and the Minnesota Loan & Trust Company, and Lane, Piper and Jaffray, Inc., the opinion states that the companies in general "agree to purchase any and all warrants issued for 1921 hail losses that may be offered to them at the following rates: All warrants, offered and purchased during February, 1922 at 98 per cent; during March, 1922 at 98 1-2 per cent; during April, 1922, at 99 per cent; during May, 1922, at 99 1-2 per cent and during June, 1922, at 100 per cent of the principal or face amounts of such warrants. The Industrial Commission agrees to repurchase from the Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, and Lane, Piper and Jaffray, Inc., all hail warrants which they have so purchased from the holders thereof, and to issue in payment thereof, the notes of the Industrial Commission dated December 1, 1921, and bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date thereof.

ZEY PREVOST, WITNESS, IS NOW MISSING

San Francisco, Feb. 13.—A "foreign subpoena" for Miss Zey Prevost, an eye witness for the prosecution in the manslaughter case of Roscoe C. (Pat) Arbuttle, is to put into the hands of every sheriff in the state for service, as a result of Miss Prevost's disappearance. It was announced by District Attorney Brady. Brady said he had reliable information that Miss Prevost boarded a train here last Monday after buying a ticket for New Orleans.

Efforts to find Miss Prevost within the state are intended to pave the way for the reading of her testimony in Arbuttle's two former trials in the event that she cannot be located before the third trial scheduled to begin March 13, Brady said.

MURDERER IS SERVING SECOND LIFE SENTENCE

Pardoned While Serving First Sentence, Goes and Kills
Another One

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 13.—Sol Fleming, who is serving his second life sentence for murder, has retired from the presidency of the Mutual Welfare League, an organization of prisoners in the State Reformatory here.

The league, while conceived by the superintendent, largely is the creature of Fleming's constructive efforts. The league is charged with providing recreation for the inmates of the prison, looks after the amusements and establishes a standard of conduct for its members, demanding that they maintain the standard if they enjoy its benefits.

Fleming, the former president, and who still devotes much time and study to the league, has the unusual record of now serving his second life sentence for murder. He was pardoned while serving his first sentence. In 1915 he again killed a man and again received a life sentence.

The welfare feature of the league has Fleming's chief interest. It looks after the dependents of its members, cares for its members when they are sick, by providing delicacies and pays funeral expenses if they or any of their dependents die.

"It helps the men to know that their families are being cared for," Fleming says, "and will keep many a wife faithful until her husband gets out, in my opinion. A woman with dependent children and her husband here has a hard outlook."

Tangible achievements in the year of the league's existence are considered remarkable by the superintendent. Notwithstanding the fact that a large majority of the prisoner's practically are destitute, the league has spent in cash $2,300 improving the baseball diamond, $850 for band uniforms and instruments, $1,500 on its commissary and office fixtures, and has accumulated about $500 worth of stage, properties. These purchases were made possible by the operation of a store by the prisoners.

There was much enthusiasm in the discussion, special stress being given to the discussion of a central registration bureau. The Council ask the cooperation of all Bismarck citizens and the cooperation of the social worker, Miss Lawrence, who begins her week in Bismarck and Burlington county this week.

Show Nets $215.
The production, "Katcha-Koo," netted $215 to the Business and Professional Women's club. It was announced today. The show, being an elaborate production, was expensive to produce, and the club feels that it made an excellent showing in having this amount as its half of the proceeds after all expenses were paid. Edna Jane Gail, who directed the show, left today for Grand Forks, where she will produce "Katcha-Koo."

OLD FAVORITE IS RETURNING TO AUDITORIUM

Based on the idealistic principle that human hearts are alike, whether they beat under skins of brown or white, Richard Walton Tully's famous Hawaiian romance, "The Bird of Paradise," is due back at the auditorium Feb. 24.

Although the production has been here before, interest in its return is keen, according to the management of the auditorium.

For this tour of the piece Mr. Tully has assembled an entire cast which is said to be the strongest yet provided for "The Bird of Paradise." Ann Reader is the Luana. Herbert Charles is the Wilson. Frederick Forrester enacts the role of the beachcomber and Ellen Mahar is the new Diana.

ETHEL CLAYTON AT THE ELTINGE.
Many patrons at the Eltinge the past week have expressed pleasure at the coming of Ethel Clayton in "Wealth." While she has never been hailed as a star supreme, Ethel Clayton has made friends galore through a personality which enables her to convey an appeal of great sincerity to her audience. "Wealth" is really a delightful picture dealing with the trials of a young artist who marries a rich young man who has been reared in the belief that money means everything, but who later learns that love and work, not money, is the key to happiness in this life.

Herbert Rawlinson is seen as the wealthy young idler. Others in the cast are George Perolat, Claire MacDowell and Jean Acker. The late Wm. D. Taylor, whose unfortunate death took from the picture world one of the really great directors directed this picture. Mr. Taylor was a mining engineer, actor, a farmer in Kansas and a captain of English troops in the late war. His varied experience made him an ideal man for a picture director as his productions give evidence of his broad conception of human emotion.

NEW INGRAM PLAY ON BALZAC THEME.
"The Conquering Power" is announced by the Capitol Theatre for two days, beginning tonight. It is a Rex Ingram production for Metro and in it Mr. Ingram has had the assistance of all the principals who aided him in making "The Four Horsemen" of the Apocalypse, the superb production that it was. At its New York premiere, "The Conquering Power" was acclaimed with unstinted enthusiasm, some reviewers asserting that it even surpassed "The Four Horsemen."

It is an adaptation by June Mathis of Balzac's novel, "Eugenie Grandet." The scene is laid in a provincial city of France, where the miserly old Grandet hoards his gold and lives in poverty with his daughter, Eugenie, a nephew, Charles, a young boulevardier from Paris, son of a bankrupt suicide, is thrown upon the miser's charity—and is accordingly thrown out, shipping to Martinique with little money, but with the treasured memory of Eugenie's love.

This is the beginning of Balzac's tremendous story of love and greed. In the screen version Alice Terry, the exquisitely beautiful Marguerite of "The Four Horsemen," has scored a sensational triumph through her portrayal of Eugenie. Rudolph Valentino, whose Latin temperament and graceful fascination fitted him prominently for the role of Julio in "The Four Horsemen," is cast as the Parisian dandy, Charles. Ralph Lewis, one of the most effective character actors, plays old Grandet. Others in the cast are Edward Connelly, Edna Dumary, George Atkinson, Willard Lee Hall, Mary Hearn, Bridgette Clark, Mark Fenton, Eugene Pouyet and Ward Wing. The photography is by John F. Seitz and the technical directors are Ralph Barton and Amos Myers.

PIMPY? WELL, DON'T BE

People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 30c.

On account of having to devote all my time to the sign business, I am compelled to announce that "The Harveys" will be unable to accept any more dance engagements beyond those already contracted for.

My complete outfit of drums and traps, Deagan xylophone, Deagan orchestra bells, clarinets and about 500 dance and concert numbers for orchestra will be for sale after February 24th.

During the past ten years we have derived much pleasure from our orchestra work in Bismarck and the neighboring towns, and it is with considerable regret that we feel obliged to terminate it.

to be shown at the auditorium with Loew's vaudeville Wednesday night. Vancouver people are with some reason, talking about what happens at the Pantages theater this week when a box containing a pretty young lady is seen in half. The illusion originated by P. T. Selbit and first presented at the Maskeleyne theater in London, is probably the best and most thrilling ever brought to Vancouver. Although there is the traditional catch somewhere so openly is the thing done and so thoroughly that to the lay mind there is no explanation at all. Excited comment follows every exhibition. The girl is tied tightly and placed in the box which is small enough to prevent any but the smallest movement. Plates of glass and sheets of steel are pushed through and through the box and then the two henchmen of Mr. Sidney Hamilton, who brought the act from London, take a crosscut saw and saw through the box. The two severed ends are pulled apart and the girl is found tied as before.

To Serve You

In the everyday use of your telephone you perhaps give little thought to the number of people or the amount of machinery which is necessary to provide you with telephone service.

Engineers determine where the plant is to be built, how constructed and expanded. Other employees do the construction work and keep the property in repair. Operators handle the calls, and bookkeepers keep the accounts. And behind all, efficient management is necessary to finance the business and see that everything runs smoothly.

We wish you could meet each one of the thousands of intelligent, well trained and loyal men and women who make our system run so smoothly and effectively.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

SHOULD BRING RELIEF
Considerable credit is due the state administration for its energetic drive to market hail warrants. The Supreme court has disposed of the legal issues and the securities can now be marketed under a plan proposed by the members of the industrial commission and the state insurance commission.

This decision will expedite the sale and bring several millions of new money into the state at a time when it is badly needed. Insurance Commissioner Olesness has been working harmoniously with Governor Nestos, Attorney General Johnson and Commissioner Kitchener.

It was feared that legal barriers would prevent the sale of the hail warrants upon the terms made by Twin City purchasers of such securities. North Dakota can go ahead and negotiate a loan with the hail warrants as collateral. Under the decision the hail commissioner is held to have full authority to certify that the warrants are valid obligations of the department.

AN EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE
No periodical in the nation has done more to promote the aims and ideals of the Washington disarmament conference than the Literary Digest. The service has been performed by arranging in a most intelligent and exhaustive manner all data in favor and in opposition to the issues fathered by the Harding administration. The strictly impartial and impersonal presentation of the articles has brought before the American people in a graphic way the benefits to be gained through the agreements recently arrived at in Washington.

The Literary Digest has had a complete disarmament number devoted to statistics and views on the issues involved, and a compilation of the war strength of nations with the cost of war. This number was followed by issues devoted almost exclusively to Japan, China and France. All the numbers should be preserved in public and private libraries as reference works of inestimable value.

A fitting climax to the brilliant group of numbers, would be an issue devoted to the accomplishments of the conference. The Literary Digest is supreme in its unique field. It has quickened interest in the most momentous issues growing out of the world war. The efforts of its publishers and editors are worthy of the greatest support and highest commendation.

THE GRIM REAPER
Deaths from alcohol last year were a half more than in 1920.
This is shown by the records of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, based on nearly 14,000,000 industrial policy holders.
The alcoholic death rate will be higher for 1922, as whisky in synthetic form daily becomes more poisonous, more fatal. Then it will drop off rapidly. Fear, the greatest of prohibition enforcement agents, more powerful than all rum sleuths combined, will make America bone-dry, at least in whisky.

The death rate among Americans in 1921 was the lowest ever recorded, averaging all causes, says the insurance company.

There were only 17 deaths for every 2000 population, compared with 25 in 1911.

The nation gets healthier. That's more important than international politics or domestic economies.

Give us health and we can put up with almost anything. For health usually means happiness, the goal of all life.

Do you realize how rapidly the dread diseases are being exterminated or gotten under control?

Tuberculosis death rate has been cut almost in half, in the last 11 years. Its decline in 1921 was the greatest of any year on record.

Even the death toll of organic heart disease and Bright's disease is setting lower.

Safety first campaigns are bearing fruit. Rate of deaths from industrial accidents is slumping sharply.

Deaths due to automobiles are soaring. Last year they numbered more than five times as many as in 1911.

This is more than counterbalanced by the greater number of autos in use now, compared with past years.

That, however, is small consolation to pedestrians and occupants of cars with reckless drivers. It is like telling a soldier that there are 200 rifles shooting at him, against only 20 rifles in a previous battle.

With increasing congestion of population, compulsory protection against reckless auto drivers will become a necessity. The auto death rate will be reduced by the same processes that have cut the general death rate—quarantine and education.

A NEW DISCOVERY
Important discovery: A way has been found to determine the sex of chickens as soon as they hatch from eggs. Previously, the chick had to be at least six weeks old before its sex could be known.

This discovery is of great value to farmers. They now can be certain they are purchasing pullets if they want to produce eggs, or cockerels if they are raising chickens for food.

Discovery is announced by Dr. Leslie C. Dunn of Storrs experiment station, Connecticut Agricultural College.

One hundred years ago, about all that was known of chickens was that they laid eggs and were good eating.

In hundreds of thousands of branches of knowledge, man today knows 1000 times as much about nature's mysteries as the folks who lived in 1822.

GREATER VICTORY THAN WATERLOO
The world's greatest dam, the Senar, is being rushed to completion on the Blue Nile river, 2000 miles south of Khartoum, Africa, where Lord Kitchener became famous.

This dam will bring under irrigated cultivation 3,000,000 acres of farming land, now idle. It will run a swarm of factories, mightier than the Pyramids.

Ancient way of conquering a territory was to enslave the inhabitants. Modern man's great conquests harness nature's forces and free human labor. Building one big dam is a greater victory than winning 100 Waterloos.

ABOUT INCOME TAX
About your income tax: Uncle Sam will not allow claims for depreciation in the actual value of land, a home or property such as an auto used for pleasure.

But if buildings, autos or other devices are used as productive tools of business, depreciation can be written off.

Only depreciation recognized by income tax collector is that which results from exhaustion, wear and tear of property by its use in trade, business, profession or vocation.

The home of a family is denied the advantage given to the home of a business. This may not satisfy your ethics. But it's the law.

A DIFFICULT TASK
Old saying is, no one can eat a quail a day for 30 days. H. J. Jalmar, Baptist missionary in the Congo, hasn't tested the quail theory. But he ate chicken three times a day for two years.

Don't pity Jalmar for monotony of diet. Pity his wife, who had to plan the meals to make them attractive. She evolved 22 ways of preparing chicken.

No man has a task as difficult as his wife has, in planning meals. Doubt it? Ask her.

FEWER BLIND PEOPLE
In our country are 52,617 blind persons, three out of five being males. So reports your Uncle Sam.

Ten years ago, the sightless numbered 57,272. Fewer blind, yet population is greater. People are guarding their eyes more carefully. Blindness, like all other accidents, usually can be avoided by not taking any chances.

EDITORIAL REVIEW
Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

ATTEMPTING TO REVIVE A ONCE GREAT PARTY

Only a general election can show how far British public opinion responds to the challenge flung at the coalition government by the Independent Liberals, for whom former Premier Asquith and Viscount Grey are the chief spokesmen. These men assailed Lloyd George and all his works at a meeting held in London. The keynote of the occasion was struck by Viscount Gladstone, who accepted a title his great father persistently refused, and who said in his address as presiding officer: "Tonight we enter the lists and take the field against Mr. Lloyd George and his coalition government."

A strong opposition is a necessity under any system of popular government. The Liberal party is the only nucleus for such an opposition in England. Most unprejudiced observers are confident that if an election were held next week the coalition cabinet, which Mr. Asquith assails because of its liking for "expedients and experiments" and which Lord Grey regards as intolerable because it has fused political elements formerly irreconcilable, would be returned to power by a handsome majority.

However, the coalition principle cannot be applied indefinitely. An end must come to it some time. And when it does come a revival and strengthened Liberal party may once more take up the reins of government. Mr. Asquith and Lord Grey have a heavy task of reconstruction. But they are not wanting in either ability or courage. —Brooklyn Eagle.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

That the I. V. A. campaign is to be waged principally upon the investigation of the league administration conducted by Gov. Nestos and his associates is apparent. Townley is under arrest and Hastings it is hoped will be returned. Brinton and Waters are regarded as material witnesses and what their reward will be for informing upon their old time associates has not been divulged.

The trial of Townley doubtless will be saged as nearly as is feasible to the June primaries as such an event would throw into bold relief for the delectation of the voters the entire record of the recent administration. If convictions can be obtained, the results will strengthen the hands of the administration materially.

Of course the Scandinavian bank deal goes back to the days when Waters was in charge of the state bank examiners department. Whether any deal has been made with him for his help in convicting anyone accused of misdeeds is not known and probably will not be known except to those close to the throne of the I. V. A. managers.

The Recall election placed an obligation upon Gov. Nestos to probe conditions to the bottom both with a view to find a way out, of the mess the state has been involved in during the last six years and also to bring the criminally guilty, if there be any, to the bar of justice.

There can be no criticism of the administration for probing the former administration. The I. V. A. indictment alleged certain things and of course their elected officials have started out to find out if the bill of complaint is a true one or not.

There is a conflict among the advisers of Gov. Nestos as to the future of the industrial program. The Grand Forks Herald insists upon the completion of the Grand Forks mill and elevator. On the other hand the Forum is opposed to spending any more money on experimenting. It points out editorially that the state administration in proposing to spend more tax money is "shutting its eyes to experience." The Tribune finds itself in complete accord with the Forum on this issue, in fact it took a positive position on this issue before and after the recall, while many papers were indulging in the soft pedal.

With the tax payers demanding some relief from their burden, it is going to be hard to convince them that millions more should be spent to convince a few I. V. A. theorists of the futility of state owned enterprises. In commenting upon the announced purpose of the administration to dump a few more millions into the Grand Forks venture the Forum says:

"Perhaps it is 'good politics' and perhaps it isn't. The Forum has not found that it is 'good politics' in the long run to fool the voters or to peddle political patent medicines to them. It insists, as it always has, that it is not 'good business' or 'good sense,' and it is no more inclined to keep silent while the state funds are squandered on another flour mill than it was to keep silent when we were stinking public money in the state bank or the state homebuilders' mess."

Jerry Bacon in the Grand Forks Herald urges the usual pork barrel argument in the following: "The operation of this business must be continuous. For its success there must be developed a business policy, which will necessarily be framed largely as the result of current experience. No success will be possible if political considerations are to enter into the work, or if the management is subject to change and its policy to reversal as the result of passing changes of political administration. It is assumed to be the thought of the survey commission that such a board shall have general supervision, analogous to the supervision which a board of trustees exercises over the affairs of a college, or which a board of directors exercises over a corporation. The actual executive work will necessarily be in the hands of one man, selected for his experience, his character, and his competency."

"As to the prosecution of work on the plant, that must be expedited as much as possible. The sooner the plant is completed and put in operation, the sooner will it become of practical value to the people whom it is designed to accommodate. Presumably separate units may be utilized before others are completed. The work should be got under way and pushed as rapidly as is consistent with the best construction."

Then to add to the agony Justice Robinson has a number of laws which he proposes to initiate at the June primaries. With the administration urging more taxes to engage in state socialism, Justice Robinson would cut the tax income down by a plan to rebate taxes. Regardless of the merits of such a procedure and there are serious obstacles to such a plan, it is going to be mighty popular with the tax payers especially the tax dodger and that unfortunate individual, and there are many in these lean years, who simply cannot pay his taxes.

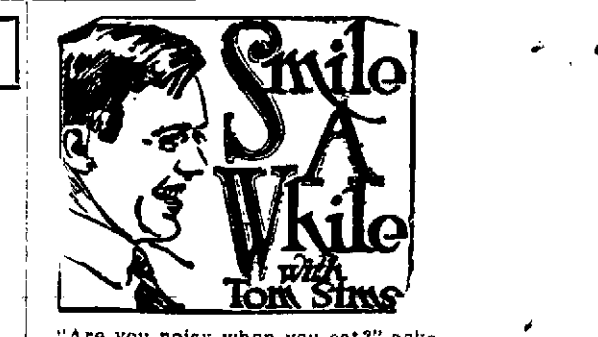

There is no doubt but that the activities of Justice Robinson in his law to rebate a material portion of taxes levied for specific purposes, has caused considerable worry in administration circles.

Whether the I. V. A. organization will have any new law to initiate next June has not been made apparent as yet. It will be exceptional, however, if the organization has nothing to submit to the voters. Few elections have gone by without the usual allotment of panaceas.

Not all is harmony in the league ranks. There is a balance of power clique which is making faces at the faction which wants to jump in and follow the old tactics of a straight league ticket. The Courier-News is under the domination of the faction not quite responsive to A. C. Townley. While not discrediting Townley completely, the paper opposes his balance of power idea. In the Laneser retraction, the Courier-News alienated a large number of leaguers who now feel that they have been fed up on false statements.

Then there is a faction that wants to March convention in Fargo and another which wants it staged at Bismarck. The Fargo clique calls the Bismarck clique a "soviet of office-holders" and makes other uncompromising remarks.

When the many factions are viewed both in the league and I. V. A. ranks,

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

There were many other places in Mistland, and Nancy and Nick missed none of them, thanks to the kindness of Buskins and Scootalong.

The queer little train stopped next at Fog Town, where fairies were filling large bags with the thick misty stuff and tying the tops with string. "I thought fog was sort of a nuisance," said Nancy. "When we're out having a ride and it gets foggy, Daddy always says, 'Oh, isn't it a nuisance,' because he can't see where he is going."

"No," said Buskins, "fog isn't always a nuisance. Usually it is kind. Its chief use is to fool Jack Frost. At this time of year, when he ought to be minding his manners and hiking off to the sky, Jack's generally hiding 'round watching his chance to nip the fruit. So the fog fairies have to play policeman and when he's around, they open their bags so he can't see where the apples and cherries are."

After that they visited Winter Town, where the snow fairies lived, but it was closed for the season and all the houses were boarded up. The snow fairies were having a vacation, most likely up at the North Pole.

That was the last of the towns in Mistland, so the visitors got on Scootalong's train again for the return trip. This time Scootalong let them look inside of his engine and they could see the little steam fairies pushing the wheels around.

They soon arrived at the place where the apple tree elevator was waiting. So thanking Scootalong and bidding him goodby the Twins and Buskins descended to the earth.

"I shall see you once more, kiddies," said Buskins, as he bade them goodby. "There is one more country in the Land-of-Up-in-the-Air that you would like to visit. I am sure. It is Smoke Land."

EVERY DAY LEARN A WORD

Today's word is DEMAGOGUE. It's pronounced—dem-a-gah—with accent on the first syllable. It means—a poser in politics, one who plays an insincere role to gain public support, one who inflames public passions to advance himself, a mob leader.

It comes from—Greek "demos," people, and "agelo," to lead.

Companion words—demagogic, demagogism.

It's used like this—"Those politicians who would inspire us with hatred of our neighbors and arouse strife are demagogues."

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Editor, Bismarck Tribune:

I have read with much interest your article, signed a Tax Payer, in The Tribune dated Feb. 9. As you were kind enough to print his statement or letter, will you also be kind enough to print the letter of another tax payer who is an employee of the state.

Now, then, I myself am a tax payer and an employee of the state. My salary is a good wage beneath $100 a month. I have a small home, not much more than a shack, which I have been trying to pay for desperately for years. I have bright-eyed little children looking to me for support. I believe I am safe in saying that the tax payer registering the complaint travels the streets of Bismarck in an expensive automobile and lives in a beautiful, comfortable home. It is to relieve him from paying taxes on these luxuries that he desires to have my wages cut, with the assistance of Judge Robinson, in whom the people had such faith when he was elected and whose sole aim now seems to be to have the working man trodden upon and assist the wealthy in the luxuries of the luxury.

If you, Mr. Robinson, also is an employee of the state, if he is such an ardent exponent of having the wages of state employees cut, what about accepting a cut in wages himself. What about Mr. Robinson? It is well to do as one preaches.

If you Mr. Tax Payer, or you, Mr. Robinson, wish taxes reduced on the luxuries of the wealthy, can you not discover some other way of doing it besides having my income cut from $75 to $50 a month? I myself, am suffering under the burden of excessive taxes. Part of the taxes I am paying go towards helping to make extensive loans to thousands and thousands of farmers through the Bank of North Dakota. No such consideration for the state employee.

If you, Mr. Tax Payer, and you, Mr. Robinson, do not believe in paying taxes, do not believe in paying taxes, and feel that life and living is only for the wealthy, I would suggest that you use your efforts to close these state institutions, let your criminals and insane run wild instead of pretending you are in a white man's country.

If you, Mr. Tax Payer, do not want to pay taxes, why not do away with your car and comfortable home and live the way I do? That would be a better way of relieving you of the burden and have my wages cut. State employees of North Dakota are already being paid less than other states except where they are paying their employees. Well done, Mr. Robinson, you have lightened the burden of the wealthy and increased the burden of the poor. May you pass to your reward. I dare you, Mr. Tax Payer, to answer this letter in the Tribune, and I dare you to state just to what amount less than $75 you would suggest my wages be cut, in order that the taxation burden on the luxuries of the wealthy may be relieved.

A Tax Payer and a State Employee.

5500.00 SPOT CASH.

Will buy my equity in a quarter section farm land two miles from the Youngtown Creamery, seven miles north of New Salem, where the Holstein Dairy Cow has made good and light fields, barely scratched, hold future promise.

According to the lowest possible estimate this equity is worth $1,400.

If figured according to what farmers in this immediate vicinity are asking for similar land this equity is worth $2,800.

Or if figured like land that has been sold to the Bismarck public in the shape of "Coal Mine Stock," this equity is worth $45,400.

When you buy this equity you become owner of millions of tons of coal. Some insurance policy if you have the courage and the backbone to look twenty years ahead!

BOY SPECULATOR, WHO HANDLED SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS, IS HELD IN JAIL

Chicago, Feb. 13.—While Raymond Bischoff, "boy speculator," was explaining to Judge K. M.
Landis what had become of approximately seven million dollars entrusted to him by thousands of families in Chicago stockyards district, several hundred persons today stormed his office searching for the men who they declared had brought them to financial ruin.

Extra police were called to control the crowds who shouted threats against the 25-year-old lad and it was only when assured that Bischoff was behind jail bars that it dispersed.

Bischoff, however, while admitting that he was short at least $4,500,000 in his transactions with other persons' money, insisted that he had violated no law and would have made good all his debts if the police had let him alone. He insisted that he had played a lone hand in his dealings but despite this his blind stepfather, O. Davis, and his cousin, E. F. Geer, were called before Judge Landis with him.
